Vol. XVIII.]

[No. 5080.]

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved
their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak
more in favour of a medicine than commons of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further,
that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases steamed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved
for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, cat-arrhs, and approaching consumptions.
To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Loss of appetite back
Impurity of blood Indigestion
Hysterical affection Melancholy
Inward weakness Gout in the stomach and debility Pains in the limbs
and Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain
in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free
from corrosive and repellent minerals,
the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes
of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring-
worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets
may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

On Wednesday, the 25th inst., the ship "Lithuania," from London, arrived at New York. The ship was commanded by Captain J. H. Smith, and had on board a large number of passengers and cargo. The ship was in good condition, and the crew was well behaved. The ship was expected to arrive at New York on the 25th inst.

are allowed no free agency. They go to the Senate for ratification—Virginia & N. York, with a free portion of 2,000,000, are not satisfied with terms; but while they are held in by Louisiana and Mississippi, with their population of 70,000, the treaty affirmed, a warrant is drawn on the treasury for five millions of dollars, and the foundation is laid for three or four States. We say nothing of any amount of Massachusetts to the terms of a treaty, or having recently been by the blandishments of Virginia, probable her affections will travel south; nunc mihi, nunc alii be.

are we all born free? and do we not equal rights? and can this practice be the case in a government, where one man in his private capacity (it results in this) has the same power of designation of the first officers of government and in the appropriation of immense sums of money from the treasury? This part of the constitution must have been conceded by military necessity, and if possible, to prevent it, should never have existed to the new states. "You had a foot on my neck," said the Day of the Revolution. "Decatur, and what I do?" It is easy to believe (we speak of human nature as it is) that New York, when she asks from the ten millions pays into the treasury, a hundred thousand, for internal improvements, and her request frustrated by a state infinitely smaller than herself, situated upon the Red River or Missouri, and feel mingled emotions of disgust and indignation.

Whether the subjects above alluded to be or be not presented to the consideration of congress next session, they are as an elucidation of the proposition I have laid down; they show where power lies; that it is unequal, and it well known that power is not long dormant. It should also be particularly noted, that it will not be long before the power in the south and west will have in their power to control every executive appointment, from a foreign minister to a secretary of legation, from an adj. gen. to an ensign. The part which Virginia has taken—her internal political situation—and the interest which she feels in the erection of new states, shall reserve for future inquiry. As anxious as we are for the preservation of the union, believing, as we do, that it is indispensable for our growth and prosperity, as a great and flourishing nation; we invite the attention of our statesmen to this important subject, that they may adopt measures which will interact the evils we anticipate, and the consequences we fear. The constitution possesses within itself the remedial power, and it should be exercised: for one acquainted with the character of the people of the north; the spirit and dependence which actuate them; their enterprise, industry and hardihood; their love of liberty and inviolable determination, but knows, that should there be a general sentiment (and this can only result from circumstances that warrant it) that they are oppressed, no matter whether the hand of a despot, or by unequal laws—no matter by whom, or from what source—their indignation would be vivid as the lightning which flashes on the summer's cloud; their voice, deep as the thunder, that resounds through the wel-

FROM THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER.
Sketches of the life and character of Patrick Henry. Printed at Philadelphia pp. 427.

"Such is the short, plain and modest account which Mr. Henry has left of this transaction. But other interesting particulars have been handed down by tradition, and live still in the recollection of one, at least, now in life, as the reader will presently see by his own statement."

"This," (continues our author,) "was the measure which raised Mr. Henry to the zenith of his glory. He had never before had a subject which entirely matched his genius, and was capable of drawing out all the powers of his mind. It was remarked of him, throughout his life, that his talents never failed to rise with the occasion, and in proportion with the resistance which he had to encounter. The nicety of the vote on his last resolution, proves that this was not a time to hold in reserve any part of his forces. It was, indeed, an alpine passage, under circumstances even more unpropitious than those of Hannibal; for he had not only to fight, hand to hand, the powerful party who were already in possession of the heights, but at the same instant to cheer and animate the timid band of followers, that were trembling, and fainting, and drawing back, below him. It was an occasion that called upon him to put forth all his strength, and he did put it forth, in such a manner, as man never did before. The cords of argument, with which his adversaries frequently flattered themselves that they had bound him fast, became pack-threads in his hands. He burst them with as much ease, as the unshorn Sampson did the bands of the Philistines. He seized the pillars of the temple, shook them terribly, and seemed to threaten his opponents with ruin. It was an incessant storm of lightning and thunder, which struck them on all sides. The faint-hearted gathered courage from his countenance, and towards became heroes, while they gazed upon his exploits.

"It was in the midst of this magnificent debate, while he was denouncing the tyranny of the obnoxious act, that he exclaimed in a voice of thunder, with the look of a god, 'Caesar had his Brutus—Charles the First, his Cromwell—And George the Third—' 'Treason,' cried the speaker, 'treason, treason,' echoed from every part of the house. 'It was one of those trying moments which is decisive of character.'—Henry faltered: not for an instant; but rising to a sterner attitude, and fixing on the speaker an eye of the most determined fire, he finished his sentence with the most emphatic emphasis, 'may profit by their example. If this be treason, make the most of it!'"

Our author, after some general reflections, here ends his 2d section, for the work is with great propriety divided into these resting places for the mind. In the course of it, however, he has taken occasion to sketch with a master's hand the characters of Speaker Robinson, Peyton Randolph the King's Attorney-General, Edmund Pendleton, George Wythe, and Richard Henry Lee. These sketches remind us of the felicitous portraits of Mr. Marshall, and Mr. Monroe, in the British Spy, and of Mr. Tazewell, in the character of Sidney, in the Old Bachelor. They have the same discriminative touches, the same warmth, brilliancy and justness of colouring, for which the author has been long celebrated, and which constitute the life and soul of his kind of writing. That the reader may judge for himself, we present him with the following picture of R'd H. Lee, (p. 19.)

"But Richard Henry Lee was the Cicero of the House. His face itself was on the Roman model; his nose Caesarian; the port and carriage of his head, leaning persuasively and gracefully forward—and the whole contour noble and fine. Mr. Lee was, by far, the most elegant scholar in the House. He had studied the classics in the true spirit of criticism. His taste had that delicate touch, which seized with intuitive certainty, every beauty of an author, and his genius that native affinity which combined them without an effort. Into every walk of literature and science, he had carried this mind of exquisite selection, and brought it back to the business of life, crowned with every light of learning, and decked with every wreath, that all the Muses, and all the Graces, could contrive. Nor did those light decorations constitute the whole value of his freight. He possessed a rich store of historical and political knowledge, with an activity of observation, and a certainty of judgment, that turned that knowledge to the very best account. He was not a lawyer by profession; but he understood thoroughly the constitution, both of the mother country, and of her colonies; and the elements also, of the civil and municipal law. Thus, while his eloquence was free from those stiff and technical restraints which the habits of forensic speaking are so apt to generate, he had all the legal learning which is necessary to a statesman. He reasoned well, and declaimed freely and splendidly. The note of his voice was deeper and more melodious than that of Mr. Pendleton. It was the canonical voice of Cicero. He had lost the use of one of his hands, which he kept constantly covered with a black silk bandage, neatly fitted to the palm of his hand, but leaving his thumb free; yet, notwithstanding this disadvantage, his gesture was so graceful and so highly finished, that it was said he had acquired it by practising before a mirror. Such was his promptitude, that he required no preparation for debate. He was ready for any subject as soon as it was announced; and his speech was so copious, so rich, so melodious, set off with such bewitching cadence of voice, and such captivating grace of action, that, while you listened to him, you desired to hear nothing superior, and indeed thought him perfect. He had a quick sensibility and a fervid imagination, which Mr. Pendleton wanted. Hence his orations were warmer and more delightfully interesting, yet still, to him those rays were not consigned, which could impale the sources either of the strong or tender passions. His defect was, that he was too smooth and too sweet. His style bore a striking resemblance to that of Herodotus, as described by the Roman orator: 'he flowed on like a quiet and placid river, without a ripple." He flowed, too, through banks covered with all the fresh verdure and variegated bloom of the spring—but his course was too subdued, and too beautifully regular. A cataract like that of Niagara, crowned with overhanging rocks and mountains, in all the rude and awful grandeur of nature, would have brought him nearer to the standard of Homer and of Henry."

Land for Sale.

IF early application is made, I will dispose of 400 acres of the CEDAR GROVE tract of land. There is surplus timber and fire wood enough on the part I purpose selling to pay, with judicious management, more than half the purchase money, at the price I ask. The situation is healthy, and the land fertile. Contiguity to market is also among its advantages; it being within less than a mile of Mr. Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price may be had for grain. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber, residing at Cedar Grove, ten miles below Alexandria, and one below Janney's mill.

A valuable Farm for Sale.

THE SUBSCRIBER will sell, on reasonable terms, a valuable and productive farm of 600 acres, or thereabouts—being part of the lands of the late Richard Brent, lying on Kettle Run in the county of Prince William, in the state of Virginia—20 miles from the Occoquan Mills—35 miles from Alexandria, and about the same distance from Georgetown and the City of Washington. This farm lies in the centre of an excellent neighborhood—handsomely situated—abundantly watered, and has upon it an ample proportion of wood. The soil is naturally strong, and a considerable portion of it has for some years past, been cultivated according to the most approved rules of modern husbandry. Possession will be given on the first day of January next. The terms upon which this property will be sold, will be made known upon application to George L. Brent, of Stafford County, Va. or to the subscriber living in Alexandria.

Rich Kenhwa Lands for Sale or Barter.

I WILL sell or exchange, for property in this district or its vicinity, a valuable tract of Land in Mason county, Virginia, situate on the Great Kenhwa River, at the mouth of Eighteen Mile Creek, distant from Point Pleasant about eighteen miles. This tract binds upon the river, and contains by patent one thousand and fifty acres, a large proportion of which is rich bottom. The title is old, and indisputable, having been located and surveyed by Gen. Washington before the Revolution. What may be considered as adding much to its value is the passage of the western road thro' it. By a reference to Mr. Madison's map of Virginia, the situation of the land may be designated. Apply to Colonel Francis Peyton, or
ANN-ELIZA PEYTON.

October 8

Public Sale.

Situated on the Little River Turnpike Road, about 2 miles from the town of Alexandria, and contiguous to the lands of James McKenna, and Phineas Janney. There are on the premises, a small house and other improvements. As it is presumed that persons disposed to purchase will view the land previous to the time of sale, further description is unnecessary. Terms of sale, one fourth cash, one fourth in 12 months, one fourth in 18 months, and the balance in 24 months from the day of sale. The payments to be secured by deed of trust on the property. The above land will be sold in lots to suit purchasers.

November 11

Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, about 2000 acres of land in Fairfax county, not more than from seven to nine miles from Alexandria. The property is well watered, has a sufficiency of wood, and (judging from the condition of small and well cultivated farms that adjoin it,) it is highly susceptible of improvement.—It is at present divided into tenements, of from one to two hundred acres, each provided with a dwelling house, out houses, a garden and orchard; and might, of course, be laid out into four or five very compact farms. The principal object of the subscriber, being the introduction of a good system of husbandry into his neighborhood, he will sell on very moderate terms, give a long credit on the whole amount of the purchase money, and require no other interest, than what the present rent of the land pays, being about 5 per cent. on its estimated value.

ONE thousand acres valuable Land for sale, bounded on one side by the river Patuxent, on another by the main road leading from Washington city to Annapolis, in Anne Arundel county, about 20 miles from Baltimore, 24 from Washington, and 15 from Annapolis.—This land is well calculated for tobacco, corn and rye; there is also a good proportion of meadow. It is very well watered by continual springs, and about 400 acres in wood. A further description is thought unnecessary, as those wishing to purchase will no doubt visit the premises. Persons desirous of viewing this property will please to call on Mr. Robert Fenwick, White Marsh, who will give every information. It will be sold altogether or in lots, as may suit purchasers.
For the terms of sale, &c. application is to be made to the subscriber, at Georgetown college. FRANCIS NEALE.

Also, one other piece of land and water grist mill adjoining the above on Quantico creek.—Also, one and one half acre of land formerly known by the name of the Saw Mill Tract and to include the Saw Mill and improvements.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from William Galt, near Fredericksburg, on the Lancaster road, in April last, a Negro Woman, named JULIE, about 30 years of age, 5 feet high, has lost several of her upper front teeth, speaks quick & sharp—says she was sold by a Mr. Darby, of Anne-Arundel county, to some Georgia traders whom she left near Richmond, Va. and was lodged in Fredericksburg jail, from whence she was sold for her jail fees, & purchased by John P. Thompson, and by him sold to William Galt.—It is supposed she is now lurking about the district of Columbia or its vicinity.—The above reward will be paid for apprehending and securing her so that I get her.

N. B. Masters of vessels and others are forewarned against carrying off said runaway.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on Saturday evening, the 11th inst. my mulatto man, named NED, commonly called Ned M-R-A, alias Satawix. He is about 23 or 24 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and was raised in Manchester. Ned is well made, high forehead and large flat nose; had on when he went away a grey coat and pantaloons; but as he was well provided with clothing of various kinds, it is probable he may have changed his dress. It is believed he went off with his wife, who it appears left Richmond at the same time: she is very black, and, I believe, somewhat pitted with the small pox, talks a great deal, of short stature, and rather thick made. Ned is very artful, and may probably attempt to pass for a free man; he has a down look when spoken to. The above reward will be given if taken out of Richmond or Manchester, and twenty-five dollars if taken in either place, and all reasonable expenses paid for delivering him to the subscriber.
DAVID BARCLAY.

N. B. Masters of vessels and others, are cautioned against harboring, employing or carrying off said fellow, under penalty of the law.

James Kennedy & Son, BOOKSELLERS, KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

Lee's Medicine Store,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges.

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or gripping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infect the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tricena or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes, privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS. This Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
